

THE MISSISSIPPI BAR

The Mississippi Bar announces a search for a Director of Communications. Primary duties and responsibilities include the following:

- Directs branding and public relations efforts of the Bar and oversees the content and final proofs of materials published in print and online.
- Serves as managing editor of The Mississippi Lawyer and works with the publication committee to ensure successful production and publication.
- Develops content for and oversees the Bar's social media presence.
- Designs internal and external publications and materials using graphic design tools and software.

Required Education: A Bachelor's Degree from an accredited four-year college or university. Preference given for a degree in communications, marketing, journalism, public relations, English, or a related field.

Required Experience: A minimum three years of related work experience.

Job Type: Full-time salaried position with benefits.

Qualified candidates must submit a resume and cover letter with salary requirements to Mississippi Bar Operational Development Director Maureen McDonald at mmcdonald@msbar.org no later than 12:00 p.m. on Monday, June 27.

A statewide organization consisting of more than 11,000 attorneys, The Mississippi Bar's mission is to serve the public good by promoting excellence in the legal profession and in our system of justice.